

Women in Film Seattle — Seattle Film Institute $500 Course Grant Guidelines

Qualifications:

- The applicant must be female.
- The applicant must have maintained a permanent residence in Washington State for two years.

Application Deadline: January

Notification of Award: February. This grant is intended ideally for classes beginning Spring 2011 at SFI and is designed to offer the winning applicant one class or two seminars.

The grant is good for the Spring program which begins February but if the applicant cannot attend in the Spring program the grant may be used for the Fall program which begins in September.

Submission address:

Seattle Film Institute (SFI/WIF Course Grant)
1709 23rd Avenue
Seattle, Washington, 98122

For information about course offerings call (206) 568-4387 (800) 882-4734 or visit www.seattlefilmstitute.com. For questions about grant call (206) 324-9861.

Judging panels will consist of industry professionals who will judge only upon merit.

Required documents:

- The completed application form.
- A brief essay not more than two (2) double-spaced typewritten pages.
- After choosing a class from the Seattle Film Institute's 2011 catalogue, tell why you wish to take that class, what you hope to accomplish, and what your goals are as a filmmaker.
- Minimum two letters of recommendation

Optional:

- A brief proposal of a project you have always wished to begin or complete.

Please contact SFI for more information about the class, workshop, and grant.