The Nell Shipman Student Scholarship 2007 $1,000 toward College/University Student Tuition

Women in Film/Seattle awards one tuition scholarship per calendar year for a college/university student or matriculating freshman majoring or concentrating her studies in film, video, cinema, or new media and who demonstrates the potential to make a positive impact on the film/video industry.

Qualifications:

- The applicant must be female.
- The applicant must be a student at an accredited college or university concentrating her studies in film, video, cinema, or new media studies, OR be a graduating high school student entering an accredited college or university concentrating her studies in film, video, cinema, or new media studies.
- The applicant must have consistently maintained a 3.0 average on a 4.0 scale for two years or have favorable teacher evaluations consistently for two years.
- The applicant must have maintained a permanent residence in Washington State for two years.

Deadline for application June 30, 2008.

Notification of award: September 1, 2008

Judging panels will consist of industry professionals and will judge only upon merit. The scholarship will be paid directly to the school in which you are enrolled.

Application guidelines and requirements:

- The completed application form.
- A brief essay not more than two (2) double-spaced typewritten pages on your goals as a filmmaker: why you wish to be a filmmaker.
- A brief project proposal, or "pitch,"* (1) double-spaced typewritten page.* As an aspiring filmmaker you have a vision, a story to tell, an idea for a project. Tell us about it. It can be a project you wish to begin, complete, or one you have completed.
- Letters of recommendation from two individuals to be submitted directly to the WIF/Seattle office.
- A letter from the college/university/high school submitted directly to the WIF/Seattle office stating the student's name and status as a student.
- Official college/university or high school transcripts submitted directly to the WIF/Seattle office.
- One work sample, a work in progress (such as a script, student film - VHS or DVD), storyboards, set design - anything you think will strengthen your request for the $1,000 scholarship.
